

❖ Jai Shri Ram | Jai Shri Krishna ❖

We are feeling blessed to bring you the Ninth edition of our monthly newsletter.

November 2025 has been a spiritually enriching month at our Mandir, filled with devotion, bhajans, and moments of reflection.

During this month, our community gathered at the Mandir to witness and honor many auspicious days, including Dev Uthani Ekadashi, Kartik Purnima, Dev Diwali. Devotees came together for prayers, aartis, and bhajans, receiving divine blessings and sharing in the spiritual energy of these sacred occasions.

Towards the end of the month, the Mandir hosted a special Gita Pravachan on 30th November, followed by a Gita Parayan on 1st December to celebrate Gita Jayanti. Devotees reflected on the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita, recited shlokas, and came together in deep devotion and spiritual learning.

The Mandir's planned renovation tasks are largely completed, with a few nearing completion. We genuinely thank all devotees for your support and contributions. Without your devotion and active participation, this momentous task could not have even been imagined

This month's newsletter covers:

- * Festivals and cultural activities
- * Operational updates
- * Renovation updates

Festivals and Cultural Activities

Dev Uthani Ekadashi

The Mandir observed Dev Uthani Ekadashi with simple and heartfelt rituals. Devotees gathered to offer prayers and mark the awakening of Lord Vishnu, maintaining the tradition with devotion in a modest yet meaningful manner.

Kartik Purnima / Dev Diwali

Kartik Purnima, also celebrated as Dev Diwali, was observed with diya lighting and brief prayers. Devotees participated with great reverence, creating a serene and divine atmosphere in the Mandir.

Gita Pravachan & Gita Path

The Mandir organized a special Gita Pravachan on 30th November, where devotees gathered to listen to insightful explanations of the Bhagavad Gita's core teachings. The session beautifully highlighted the relevance of Lord Krishna's wisdom in daily life, inspiring reflection, clarity, and devotion among all participants.

This was followed by a Gita Path (shlok recitation) on 1st December to mark Gita Jayanti, during which devotees recited sacred shlokas together, creating an atmosphere of profound spiritual energy. These two days of learning and chanting brought the community closer, strengthening collective faith and understanding of Sanatan Dharma.

Upcoming Planned Activities

With the Mandir's planned renovation almost complete, we are excited to introduce more activities that bring the community together and nurture spiritual growth. These initiatives aim to strengthen our connection with Sanatan Dharma, encourage learning, and provide opportunities for devotees of all ages to participate actively in Mandir life. Some of the upcoming activities include:
